In Figure 1, x-axis represent days that had or had no public announcements coming out on that day. "+" is assigned to positive news, "-" – for negative news. Each sentiment represents opinion one agent held that day (and not a number of messages made).